ABOUT OUR COVER

Jellybean

Iggy Sumnik
sculptured ceramic
14" x 12"

The Artist:

Iggy Sumnik creates ceramics, sculptures, and prints. His technique focuses on texture and balance and includes an intricacy and depth that permeate his work.

Iggy's art is aimed at provoking thought about the environmental impact of modern culture. Hand building identifiable objects, life size or larger, connects him to our culture and the natural world. Manipulating these objects and ideas represents the tendency to alter our environment. Through the use of pattern, bright color, and familiar objects, Iggy is able to connect with the past while documenting the present for the future.

Iggy's work shares a similar visual aesthetic to that of Tim Burton and Dr. Seuss and has been described as "archaic and fantastical, rife with balance and harmony."
